

Travel Guide information

Terms and conditions

Les Terrasses du Port (www.tdpspm.com) are the organizers of the packages proposed out of Halifax by plane or out of Fortune (Newfoundland) by boat. There are 3 packages available from february to end of april 2023 : « The wellness package », « the Romantic package », « Bienvenue in France package ».

The complete Terms and Conditions for your package can be found on our website www.tdpspm.com. Please remember that it is your responsibility to read these important terms before travelling as making a booking constitutes your acceptance of these terms and conditions.

Travel information

It is your responsibility to determine what documentation is required for travel to your destination and for your return to Canada. We will assume no responsibility whatsoever for passenger(s) denied carriage by the airline or refused entry into any country. We strongly recommend that you carry a valid passport when travelling outside of Canada.

You'll find all the travel info on the airline's website : www.airsaintpierre.com or the ferry's website : www.spm-ferries.fr (Travel documents, airport check-in, flight schedule information, departure cancellations, passenger baggage allowance..)

It is the passenger(s) responsibility to ensure that all information (name, date, etc...) listed on the ticket(s) is correct. Les Terrasses du Port shall not be held responsible for any errors after the ticket has been issued.

« Les Terrasses du Port » highly recommends that their customers take out a travel insurance as soon as they purchase a package.

Prices

Prices are published in euros (local currency), an approximate price in canadian dollars is mentioned on our publicity, however prices depend on the exchange rate applied by the client's bank on the day of the transaction.

Airline or ferry tickets are non-refundable.
